

I have forgotten both my Security Questions and My Password

You're already registered on Core Portal and you've forgotten the password you created during set-up and the security questions.

For security reasons if you have forgotten your password and security questions you will have to contact the Helpdesk on 076 100 2702 and a customer service agent will advise you of your options.